Three-Cornered Fist Fight in a Court Room.

Sidney Dell Attacks Richard Williams while they are Trying a Case, and Himself is Floored by Williams' Client.

It was in the state circuit court yesterday afternoon—just a plain, simple, ordinary law suit, wherein the St. Paul Harvesting Works had sued the old firm of Hawley, Dodd & Co. for $4,000 due on account. The thing had run on for several hours, Mr. Sydney Dell representing the manufacturers of machinery, and Hon. Richard Williams the Portland firm; and there were read to the jury a big heap of letters and telegrams about machines with six-foot sickle bars, stitch alike on both sides, twelve-inch cylinders with six-foot stroke, return flues, double strung wires and sustaining pedal, Westinghouse air brakes, macadamizing full width, twenty-foot suction, spray nozzles, and a lot of other technical terms which only lawyers and agricultural implement dealers know. The proceedings were awfully dry until about three o'clock, when Mr. Dell asked to go on the stand to testify concerning an affidavit filed by his clients. After he had concluded his testimony, he addressed the court saying that the affidavit had been tampered with after it was filed, and insinuated that certain words had been erased and others substituted. He said indirectly that the decendants' counsel had probably made the changes. Mr. Williams answered quickly that Mr. Dell had insinuated what he knew to be false and—

Whoop-la!

Dell rushed at Williams, grabbed him by the throat, backed him against a table, and—

Well, if it hadn't been for the timely interference of Mr. Chas. H. Dodd, one of Williams' clients, Dell, who is as large as two of Williams, might have hurt the latter.

Dodd rose from his seat.

Now those who think Mr. Dodd is not well muscled and active are mistaken. Evidently when he was abroad learning Greek and Latin, and history and philosophy, and becoming the educated gentleman he is recognized to be, he must have also taken lessons in the manly art.

And he showed the select audience of forty or more, Judge Stott being the central figure and occupying the choicest seat, how they did those things in "Yurip."

He grabbed Dell by the coat collar, and with one quick, stout jerk, landed him in the center of the space within the bar. Then he literally spun the dignified Georgia lawyer around three or four times, smashing the lamp of court clerk A. J. Marshall, crushing the stenographer's table and giving Dell two scratches on the forehead. He was taking a long breath preparatory to wiping the floor with Dell when Judge Stott shouted "separate those men!" and bailiffs, jurymen, and lawyers closed upon the belligerents and drew them apart.

The court assessed a fine of $25 against Dell, and the attendants resumed their seats, the judge said, "call the next witness," and the trial proceeded as if nothing had happened.—Oregonian.

A Fat Boy in Town.

(Washington Star)

A male child 3 years and 9 months old, from Casey county, Kentucky, and weighing 140 pounds, was waddling about the capitol this morning. He is the most corpulent individual of his age that has ever visited the capitol since the flood. He is about three feet tall, and stands about as high from the floor sitting down as when in a perpendicular on his pedal extremities. The child was the object of much curiosity in the cloak-rooms south of the house floor for some time. The pages and a lot of men congregated and feasted their greedy eyes upon his corpulency, when the "little fellow" began to cry. His father didn't pick him up in his arms, like most children of his age are embraced, but had to let him bellow it out. It would have been as difficult to have picked him up as if it were a half barrel of white lead, and as hard to push him along as to pull down a gate-post. So he held the boards. At the conclusion of his musicale the father wanted the child to pass over the floor of the house, but the boy preferred going down town in a coupe. He went. At the age of six months he weighed over a hundred pounds, and has been the curiosity of the Blue Grass state since that time. He is intelligent, good natured, and wears a 7½ hat.

To Public Speakers.

Public speakers and singers who would possess a clear voice, freedom from hoarseness and sore throat should use Hagyard's Pectoral balsam, a safe, pleasant certain healer for the throat and lungs; it speedily breaks up a cold and cures all pulmonary complaints, that so often lead to incurable Consumption. 24

GIRLS WHO CAN COOK.

A New England Mother Gives Her Views on the Wife Question.

EDITOR PHILADELPHIA TIMES:—Will you please send this letter and enclosed card to your correspondent who has never been able to find a girl who could bake a loaf or broil a steak properly!

I am an old lady, therefore pardon me for writing to you. Now, if the girls do not know how to cook, is it the girls' fault? I think not; they have never been taught. Now, is it the mother's fault? I think not. Every true mother wants her daughters married to good men, with comfortable homes. Now what does the market demand (if I may be allowed the expression) quiet, domestic girls that understand all kinds of housework, that could nurse the sick, comfort the old, be prudent and careful and make home happy? No, the demand is for stylish, brilliant, and accomplished girls, and if men will select that kind why not be satisfied? But occasionally we find a young man that has a fond recollection of his kind old grandmother and the many good things she used to cook for him, and he feels if he could find a woman like her what a happy home he could have. So he would. I am always pleased when I find a young man that has common sense enough to think that way.

Now I am not so unfortunate as you are, I know plenty of girls in our State (Rhode Island) that can cook. I have a little girl only fourteen that can make good bread and cake, and I have a daughter, not yet twenty, who, if my cook should leave, could step into the kitchen and get a first-class dinner for fifty. Spend your Summer vacation at Martha's Vineyard, and you can never write again that you know no girls that can cook. Yours respectfully,

M. H. WESTCOTT.

THE CANCELLATION OF THE DRYDOCK BONDS.

By the action of the local government in altering the plans and specifications for the drydock and moving the site back forty-three feet six inches, as well as making other and quite as grave departures from the contract with McNAMEE & Co., another large sum of money that rightfully belonged to the province has been thrown away, McNamee's bondsmen are released and the government have got a scarcely begun dock, $10,000 cash in forfeit money and a big law suit looming up in the near future. The amount of the bonds given in Canada by the contractors was $25,000, and the bondsmen, backed by legal opinions in Montreal and Toronto, decline to pay one cent, as they attribute the failure of McNamee to complete the dock to the alterations and obstacles thrown in the way of the local contractors by the local government. The Standard denies that the bonds are forfeited, but, then, who believes the Standard? Did it not deny that Mr. WALKEM had been made a judge, that he had resigned, that Mr. BEAVEN had been asked to form a ministry, that Mr. DRAKE and Mr. A. E. B. DAVIE had been offered the attorney generalship by Mr. BEAVEN? And did it not assert, two weeks ago, that McMAMEE & Co. had shipped dock material from Toronto and would arrive at this port on the 20th inst. to resume operations? What confidence can be placed by the public in an organ that is not even trusted by the government it is paid to "support" and that is forced to draw upon the Opposition journals for "executive secrets" or lap up drops of information on important governmental matters as they trickle from ministerial mouths at public meetings? The blundering of the government has again imposed a loss on the province of $25,000, and their incapacity and neglect have rendered necessary the supply of 7000 tons of cement in excess of the amount originally ordered.

A COINCIDENCE.

It is a remarkable fact that two days after the passage of the act lifting the Island railway reserve Mr. WALKEM was apprised of his appointment to a judgeship. There may be nothing sinister in the coincidence, but people will shake their heads dubiously and think deeply. It is well known that the strongest point the missionary to England made against the Dominion government in the matter of the Island railway was the fact that the Island lands were and had been locked up from settlement for many years: and it is equally notorious that Mr. DE COSMOS has censured the local government for having repealed the act that conveyed the lands to the Dominion government. In his address he lays particular stress upon the action of the government in repealing the conveyance, and does not hesitate to condemn the government in the following set terms:

"It is my belief, however, that if the legislature had stood up manfully for Lord KIMBERLEY'S "fair basis of settlement" the Dominion government would have provided the means for its construction. The action of that body in disregarding that basis of settlement, and adopting other means for its construction, has operated fatally against its immediate commencement, and renders it necessary to find other means to secure its early construction."

Mr. BEAVEN has not disputed the correctness of this clause. He has not endeavored to refute the statement that the action of the government "has operated fatally against the immediate commencement" of the Island railway, nor has he attempted to explain away the singular fact that two days subsequent to the passage of the act lifting the reserve Mr. WALKEM'S appointment was announced at Ottawa.

Judge Crease and the Jury.

TO THE EDITOR:—I have been waiting expecting the foreman of the jury to express himself on the insulting remarks of Judge Crease upon Mr. Dooley and the jury which acquitted him of being implicated with McNeil in cattle stealing. As he has not taken the trouble to do so, I hope you will allow me to make two or three remarks, as, although in this province where both judge and jury are known, the judge's observations are correctly estimated, outside the province erroneous impressions might be created that jurymen are sometimes in British Columbia actuated by improper motives instead of by a strict sense of justice.

You know as well as I do that the only direct evidence against the accused was that of a bad character, who by his own admission was a cattle thief. As Mr. Dooley has as high a reputation for honesty as any member of this community but one verdict was justifiable under the circumstances, and that was the one rendered by the jury of "not guilty."

I would like to ask Judge Crease what he would think of the jurymen of this city if unfortunately he had bought and paid for property which turned out to be stolen and when the thief was caught and a charge made against him (Judge Crease) of being a party to the theft the thief's statement was taken before his protestations of innocence! The same fair treatment which he would naturally claim for himself he should accord to others. If the verdict of the jury was not such as agreed with the opinion of the judge I should not have objected if he had pointed out in a proper and becoming way the mistake that he considered the jury had made, whilst admitting at the same time that with the jury and not with the judge rests the authority to decide upon guilt or innocence. But the judge did not do this. He smiled all over when the verdict was rendered and pleasure seemed depicted on every feature of his face at the decision arrived at. The manner in which the verdict was received by the judge was gratifying to the jury, for his expression of silent eloquence seemed to say: "Gentlemen, a better verdict could not have been given if I had been on the jury myself." Imagine, then, the astonishment and disgust of the jurymen to read in your paper that the judge, in sentencing McNeil, cast offensive reflections upon the jury and Mr. Dooley; that in substance he said the jury had not done their duty and Dooley was as guilty as McNeil.

I have been on many juries, on all of which I have been guided by the oath administered and by my conscience, and regardless of "fear, favor or affection" have come to a decision upon the evidence placed before me, and never before have I had my action impugned by the presiding judge. With all due respect to Judge Crease I protest against the course taken by him in talking at and against the jury of which I was a member, and at and against Dooley whom the jury had declared to be innocent to a convicted thief who was before him for sentence. So far as my knowledge goes such a thing was never before witnessed in a British court of justice. I have written you not in defence of myself or of the jury, for we need no defending, but in vindication of the rights which all jurymen possess and should maintain and in condemnation of the course which Judge Crease strangely thought fit to take, which, to my mind and to many others, was unusual, improper and unbecoming.

A JURYMAN.

To the Island Electors.

TO THE EDITOR:—That "a stitch in time saves nine" is an old saying that has often proved true. My object in writing this letter is to direct the attention of the electors of the Island constituencies to the position in which our Island railway reserve now stands. The reserve lands are now entirely in the hands of the government for the time being, and can be by them dealt with as they think fit. We have had recent experience to teach us to what lengths a government in an unstable position will go in order to retain their portfolios. Why should not a government to retain support alienate to their friends any portion of the railway reserve lands that they may covet? You may be sure any lands so alienated will not be the most valueless within the reserve. Should the reserve lands be frittered away in this manner the province will have nothing to offer as an inducement to capitalists to undertake the construction of an Island line. Let the electors make every candidate for legislative honors pledge himself not to support any government that will alienate or that has alienated any of these lands other than for railway purposes. By doing this the electors will strengthen the hands of any government and preserve the lands to the province for the purpose for which they are intended.

CHARLES POOLEY.

Mr. Drake's Reply to an Un-"Truthful Elector."

TO THE EDITOR:—A "truthful elector" is like one of whom the Psalmist remarked "that all men are ——." My firm fought Reed Brothers' battle until the attorney general, the chief commissioner of lands and works and the late occupier of the gubernatorial chair combined to refuse to those gentlemen the investigation before the legal tribunals which, they claimed, have no power to compel the government to be honest. The subject was relegated to England where it now is.

If I was as desirous of office as the present treasurer is, still I would not make government work pay the price of private land sales. I have only to repeat what I have repeated often before, that office is not my ambition. If it was I should have had no difficulty in obtaining it. I wish some one behind the scenes would inform the public why it was the land reservation act was repealed, and what offer was made to induce the passage of the bogus railway act. Promotion money is still a known quantity among the supporters of the late government.

BRICKS. BRICKS.

COUGHLAN & MASON

WISH TO INFORM THE PUBLIC THAT THE advertisement of M. Humber to the effect that he carries the only bricks MOULDED BY A WHITE MAN has a tendency to mislead. The fact is that the moulder is the ONLY white man employed at M. Humber's Yard, all the rest of the employees being Chinese.

At our yard more than five hundred per cent. is expended on white labor than at Humber's.

We expect to be able to supply Bricks at a REASONABLE FIGURE.

je20 COUGHLAN & MASON.

TO THE ELECTORS OF VICTORIA CITY.

GENTLEMEN:—AS ONE OF THE FOUR GENtlemen selected by the convention I beg to solicit the honor of your suffrages and I do so in the firm conviction that any change is preferable to a continuance of the deplorable incapacity of the existing government. Since they have held the reins of power our relations with the Dominion have been strained and instead of a cordial co-operation for our mutual benefit there has been a half-concealed distrust of a friendly government.

Much of the legislation for the past few years has been of a retrogressive character and many acts have been disallowed as trenching on the authority of the Dominion Parliament.

The enforcement of the collection of Provincial taxes has been unduly harsh and oppressive.

The removal of the Vancouver Island lands from the railway belt after having been locked up for so many years has rendered the construction of the Victoria and Nanaimo Railway as a portion of the Canada Pacific line very doubtful.

The blundering over the drydock and the arbitrary refusal of even allowing the claims of Messrs. Reid Brothers and their numerous creditors to be considered are subjects which vitally effect the credit of the Province and must inevitably delay the construction of necessary public works until the liabilities thus incurred are met.

I shall advocate the entire exclusion of Chinese and any measures which will have the effect of restricting their presence in this province will meet my support.

I shall forward the construction of the Island Railway in the mode best calculated to advance the interests of the Province, and strive to lessen the friction between the Dominion and the Province; and if I am honored with your confidence I shall give my support to any government which in my opinion will conduct the public business on sound principles and with honesty and integrity.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen, Your obedient servant,

TO THE ELECTORS OF VICTORIA CITY.

GENTLEMEN:—IN OFFERING MYSELF AS A candidate for your suffrages at the ensuing election for the local house I must state that I can subscribe to few of the acts of the Walkem-Beaven administration. Their policy has been fraught with disaster to the province and would soon have led it to destruction.

Elected upon the solemn assurance that they would use every effort available to stop the influx of Chinese, they violated their pledge by contenting themselves with passing a hasty and ill-considered restrictive act which only required to be seen in a court of law to be upset; and, to mark their insincerity in the matter, when the Chinamen brought the government into court to defend the act no endeavour was made to support it. Since then no attempt whatever has been made by the government to check the growing evil and not so much as a representation on the subject has been made at Ottawa. Notwithstanding that a friendly government has been in power ready to promptly further the wishes of the Province in this respect. I consider that under the "British North America Act, 1867," which concedes to the Province the exclusive right to deal with property, civil rights, direct taxation, and matters of local import, the local legislature has power to legislate upon this all-important topic and if elected I shall advocate a well-digested measure aimed at the repression of Chinese immigration; and shall at the same time move to bring the subject prominently before the Dominion government so that concurrent action may be taken by the two governments.

The local government have seriously jeopardised the island railway. By concluding their negotiations with the Imperial and Dominion governments concerning the drydock without ascertaining the cost of the work it now appears that they have involved the province in an indefinite liability ranging from $250,000 to $500,000 perhaps more regarding an enterprise which it was proudly boasted would not cost the Province one dollar. By their system of false economy in refusing to augment the civil staff and to render the gaols in remote districts secure they have caused the loss of some valuable lives notably, Ussher and Kelly at Kamloops and Jenkinson at Cassiar to say nothing of the squandering of thousands of dollars in abortive trials of the culprits and truitless assizes. Oppressive tax sales have been proceeded with notwithstanding the assurance of the Minister of Justice that the attempt to collect penalties and usurious rates of interest was illegal. The name and credit of the Province have been disgraced by the action of the government in dishonoring their own vouchers and by the almost unprecedented faith exhibited towards those with whom they have had monetary dealings.

Such patronage as the government has at command should be evenly distributed, in place of which nearly the whole of the government work has been given to a favored few. Assizes have been held to suit the political exigencies of ministers, hence prisoners have been kept awaiting trial sometimes six, sometimes twelve months, and life has been rendered insecure by making coroner's inquests, in cases of death which are unaccounted for, the exception instead of the rule.

If elected I shall use my best endeavors to promote assisted immigration and to disseminate information regarding the province in the shape of maps, hand books and so forth. I shall to the best of my ability independently support any government when acting in the interests of the country and will oppose them when doing otherwise.

THEODORE DAVIE.

BIRTHS.

What Some People Say.

That McNamee & Co.'s bondsmen laugh at the bare idea of being made to pay the forfeit of $25,000.

That Mr. Hett is thoroughly disheartened with his prospects in Esquimalt district, and now wishes he had stood with his cousin in Victoria city.

That a correct list of names, occupation and residence of nearly 2000 Victorians will appear in the new Provincial Directory.

That both he and Mr. Helgesen ought to withdraw and thus save the province the expense of polling when their cause is worse than hopeless.

That 500 children attended the Uncle Tom matinee yesterday.

That Mr. Arthur Fellows, late of this city, and now of San Francisco, was the early instructor of W. E. Sheridan in elocution.

That the Collegiate and High School, New Westminster, has closed for the holidays. It has already gained a high position among the educational institutions of the province.

That Honest Tom has written to Lillooet to ask what his chances are there.

That the authorized agent for the British Columbia Directory has nearly completed this city and will start for Sooke, Saanich and the east coast in a few days.

That that is why he has not yet announced himself as a candidate for Victoria district. But he had better issue his card at once. Lillooet don't want him.

That the city trustees of Nevada City, Cal., recently increased the license on laundries from $10 to $30 per quarter. As the result of this raise eight Chinese wash houses there have given notice that they will close out their business on the 1st of July. An effort is being made to have a white laundry started there.

That a small green fly has destroyed the apple crop.

That Capt. Wylde has consented to be a "nominee" for the provincial Parliament in the interest of the local government. The "ticket" is now full.

That Mr. McNiffe of the "Grotto" will supply that which maketh glad the heart of man on the 4th July. Mr. O. Grotto is famed for his claret cup.

That according to all appearances the new Directory of British Columbia will have a very extensive circulation throughout the entire province.

Supreme Court.

(Before Sir M. B. Begbie, C. J.)

Jackson et al. vs. Matthews.—This case occupied the attention of the court and jury all day. The plaintiff, in his representative capacity of executor under the will of the late George I. Stuart, brought an action against the defendant for goods supplied amounting to $285. After a patient hearing the jury retired at 4 p. m., and after an absence of half an hour returned with a verdict for the defendant.

Mr. A. E. B. Davie for the plaintiff; Mr. Theo. Davie, instructed by Mr. D. M. Eberts, for the defendant.

PORT MOODY.—The piling for the wharf has made such progress that it is now deemed advisable to proceed with the other necessary works. The clearing and grading for the round houses, work shops, &c., was commenced on Monday last, Barrett, the contractor, having secured about 50 men—whites and Indians—in this city, so that the work will now go on unceasingly at the terminus, because as soon as the workshops are completed they will be occupied. This will, no doubt, induce lot-owners to go on with their clearing and building. A good offer was made on Friday last for six town lots, but refused. Prices are steadily advancing and will soon be under the influence of the boom; they will receive a great impetus, and speculation will have full sway. Business at the hotel and stores is brisk, and lively times are looked for ere long. —Guardian.

NEW WESTMINSTER GRAND JURY REPORT.—The report of the grand jury at the recent New Westminster assizes is an exhaustive and well written document. A large number of subjects are dealt with in a concise and pithy manner; among which is the overshadowing Chinese question. The gaol, hospital, lunatic asylum, penitentiary and other public buildings are reported on and valuable suggestions offered. Many of the remarks of Hon. Justice Gray are heartily endorsed; but as might have been expected strong exceptions are taken to what he said on the question of a resident judge.

NANAIMO.—A Chinaman was killed in No. 3 south level of Chase River mine on Saturday morning by the fall of a small piece of coal from the roof. It appears that pillars were being stripped and the Chinaman went in to load the coal when the piece fell from the roof, which is 20 feet high in that place, striking him on the side of the head.....Certificates as mine managers have been granted to Messrs. F. D. Little, Jos. Martell, R. Scott, A. Muir and W. Horrobin. The examination was conducted by Messrs. J. Bryden and Jas. Beaumont.—Free Press.

FLAGS were flying yesterday from a large number of flagstaffs in the city in honor of Her Majesty's coronation.

Mr. DeCosmos' Meeting.

A political meeting was convened at Philharmonic Hall last evening at the call of Mr. DeCosmos. The hall was about two-thirds full. At 8½ o'clock Coun. Wilson moved Mr. Gowen into the chair. Messrs. Rithet, Earle, Coun. Wilson, T. Fell and several other gentlemen occupied seats on the platform.

The chairman invited Messrs. Fell, Baker, Shakespeare and Booth, candidates for the Commons, upon the platform. They were loudly cheered as they came forward.

Mr. DeCosmos, who was loudly cheered on coming forward, said he had invited the electors to give them some account of his stewardship and also to state his intentions if he should be re-elected. It was said that in 1878 he said that that would be the last time he would be a candidate. That was true; his health was then very bad and he did not think he would survive to stand again. He now enjoyed perfect health. There was another reason. Great things had been expected from Sir John Macdonald as a member for Victoria. He had done much, but he (Mr. DeCosmos) would not be content until the Island railway had been built. He felt able yet to be of service to the country and hence he wished to go back. He denied that he had ever voted in parliament for severing the ties that bound us to the Mother Country. He had said in the House that he did not believe the country was yet in a position to ask for Independence. (Cheers.) He read from a speech of Lord Lisgar in 1869 who said Canada was in effect independent and that England would accede to any wish of Canadians for a change of government. Last year Sir John Macdonald said that Imperial federation was impracticable and he was a home-ruler. In other words, that Canada should manage her own affairs under the Queen. He continued that Canada must remain connected with Great Britain or join the United States and he (Sir John) would prefer annexation to independence. He (Mr. DeCosmos) was opposed to independence, because Canada was not in a position to work out a nationality at the present time. Another objection to him was that he had been long enough at Ottawa; he left that to the electors, whom he felt he was as well qualified to represent as any other candidate. He claimed the credit of having secured the construction of the Port Moody section. He had been told he had got no office for himself or any one else. He did not seek any. He had no connection with any of the other candidates. He stood alone—allied with no one—was an independent candidate for the Commons and if elected would give a liberal support to the conservative government. The speaker then proceeded to recount his services last session. Sir John Macdonald made promises that railway construction would commence in 1879 on the mainland. Those promises were delusive. Work was not begun until 1880, the government delaying to again explore the northern route at a cost of $59,000. The Island railway at the close of the session of 1881 was no nearer attainment than it was in 1871. He (Mr. DeCosmos) was appointed special agent at Ottawa for the local government on the railway and drydock questions. He believed the Dominion government now regret that they did not include the Island section in the syndicate arrangement. Many interviews with the Dominion ministers were had, but proved resultless. He was then appointed provincial delegate to England which he accepted. Had he refused the appointment he would have been told that he had been bought off. Therefore he took the full responsibility of the success or failure of that mission. He waited a whole month for an answer to a request made to Sir John Macdonald to settle the difficulty without going to England. At the end of the month he had received no satisfaction. He went to London and the mission was an unqualified success. Lord Kimberley recommended the construction of a light line between Esquimalt and Nanaimo; the immediate construction of the Port Moody section, and a money compensation to be paid the province for delays in railway construction. The provincial government made a quasi agreement to convey additional land to secure the building of the Island railway; and after months of delay the government of Sir John Macdonald refused to bring down a bill to provide for the construction of the Island railway, and the Canadian syndicate also refused to build it. He proceeded to claim that the Port Moody road was a result of the mission, and read telegrams announcing his departure from Ottawa for London on the 26th May, 1881, and the departure of Mr. Marcus Smith two days afterwards to survey the Port Moody section. Mr. Marcus Smith gave him that information, and the audience could see that no effort was made to survey the Port Moody section until he (Mr. DeCosmos) announced his intention to go to London. In Hansard it would be found that Sir Charles Tupper in a speech last session acknowledged that the Port Moody section was a result of his mission [hear! hear!] Need he say more on that head? Canada had treated Columbia with great unfairness in Pacific railway expenditures, having spent $18,000,000 east and only $360,000 west of the Rocky Mountains. If returned he would do his best to get an annual expenditure of $2,500,000. But men must be placed in power in the local government who would press the matter intelligently on the Dominion government. He acknowledged the great service that Mr. Southgate had rendered the mission while at Ottawa. There was another charge which had been made against him concerning his expenses while in England. The time consumed on the mission was seven months and a half. His personal expenses were only $1,520. He would say that his mileage and sessional allowance did not come near to paying his expenses. Nearly every year he had to send home for money to pay his personal expenses. He drew $4,500 (not $5,500). For telegrams, printing, maps and clerks he paid out $2,009 25; adding to that his personal expenses, $1,520, there remained about 970 odd dollars to the good when he landed at Montreal on his return. The public could not but condemn any such extravagant utterances as had been made in the press on this subject. No reputable person would object to so small an expenditure when the result was 85 miles of railway and an expenditure of $2,500,000. If returned he would strive to have the line extended to English Bay, and a steam ferry established, and thus bring Esquimalt and Victoria into daily communication with the interior of the Mainland. Mr. DeCosmos next proceeded to contrast the niggardly treatment British Columbia had received with the lavish expenditure on railways east of the mountains. He next read from a report of a committee of the House of Commons, of which he was chairman, on Chinese immigration and claimed that from the date of that report the hostility of Canadians to Chinese began. If returned to Parliament he should endeavor to introduce a measure to repress the immigration of Chinese to Canada. Several extracts from documents on the Chinese question were read; after which Mr. DeCosmos claimed that he had obtained a duty of 10 per cent. on imported vessels. He now learned that the duty was not sufficient and he was prepared to favor a larger one. He would endeavor to get larger appropriations for Victoria harbor, and thought that some day or other the inner portion of the harbor might be turned into a floating dock. Mr. Nelson first brought up the question of reciprocity with the Sandwich Islands, and Mr. Bunster had brought it up last session. But, Mr. DeCosmos continued, if we asked for reciprocity with the Sandwich Islands we would be asking the Dominion Government to let in the product of Chinese labor duty free. The request would, at least, be inconsistent.

Mr. Miles—We don't want a railway, either, if they build it.

Mr. DeCosmos thought we should ask the Dominion government to encourage beet sugar manufacture. He was opposed to Port Moody as the Mainland terminus, believing the line should be extended to English Cay.

Mr. DeCosmos here took leave of his audience amid much cheering.

The chairman complimented the audience on their good order.

Mayor Shakespeare being called on said he must decline to address the meeting owing to the lateness of the hour. There would, however, be a public meeting in the same hall on Friday evening. The meeting then adjourned.

STREET SPRINKLING.

Coun. Kinsman remarked that the contractors, in the opinion of the committee, wanted too much for the extra work spoken of at last meeting of the council. Matter deferred. Council adjourned.

Mr. Duck's Address.

Mr. Duck has responded favorably to the requisition asking him to stand. There was never a doubt on that score in any one's mind. If elected he promises to "pursue a straightforward and independent course;" but he promised the same thing in 1871 and was elected as an "independent." Mr. Duck speaks right out on the Island railway question, and fears that the government, by raising the railway reserve, have "relieved the Dominion government from further responsibility, so far as actual construction of the work is concerned." He will endeavor to secure the construction of the Island railway, and failing that will throw open the lands to settlement. With regard to the question of compensation he would leave it to arbitration; but it has already been arbitrated twice, and Sir John flatly refuses to recognize either Carnarvon's or Kimberley's recommendations. Mr. Duck sails into the Chinese in gallant style, and recommends the adoption of drastic measures to get rid of them. On the dry-dock Mr. Duck seems to think the least said will be soonest mended; therefore he professes want of knowledge on the subject. In conclusion he appeals to the people not to draw party lines, and promises not to "torture" them by a personal canvass. It will be seen that Mr. Duck practically condemns Mr. Beaven's action on the Island railway and admits that his amendment has probably destroyed the last hope of securing that much needed improvement.

FISH have been found embedded in sandstone by the stone-cutters at the new postoffice, New Westminster. They had lain in the rocky embrace through countless ages, and were as plump and full in appearance as when first encased. They belonged to the fossil species known as of-fish-ial, which is so common in this latitude.

THE DIFFERENCE.—Two gentlemen who who spoke at the Four-mile House on Saturday evening have written to correct the organ's report; but not a single speaker has complained of The Colonist's report. And yet the government "rag" says The Colonist's report was garbled. Bring on your proof, Mr. Organ, or throw away your discordant "notes."

THE Mitchell Pleasure Party will perform at Victoria on the 13th, 14th and 15th July. They are a company something like the Fun on the Bristol organization.

KEEP COOL, OLD WOMAN.—The Standard raves like an old fishwife because we put it right respecting Mr. Mara's remarks about DeCosmos' expenses to England. We appealed to Mr. Mara as to what he did say, and if the old woman of the Standard will just keep cool for eight or ten days we shall publish the result.

Rev. Wellington J. Dowler, B. A., has been appointed by the Toronto Conference of the Methodist Church as minister of the Maple Ridge and Langley mission.

Under the energetic treatment of the contractor (Mr. Calbick) the new public school building is rearing its stately proportions.

One of our city clergymen has recently held five services a day, with fifteen miles of travel over a rough road, for four Sundays in succession. Twenty sermons in four days! No wonder he is in favor of "Sunday Closing."

At the close of the examination in connection with the Collegiate and High School on Friday last the principal, Mr. H. M. Stramberg, B. A., was made the recipient of a handsome writing stand with letter weigher and massive gold pen presented to him by the young ladies of the school. The lady principal, Miss S. J. White, M. E. L., was similarly honored at a picnic given on Saturday by the members of the C. H. S. Literary Association, of which Miss White is president, when a number of the young gentlemen of her classes presented her with a beautiful locket and chain.

From Geo. R. Ashwell, Esq., of Chilliwhack, we learn that the flooded districts are now for the most part dry, and that the water in the river is steadily abating. It is hoped that the yield of hay and winter wheat will be about half an average crop, but as regards spring grain and root crops the work of destruction is said to be complete. But the damage is by no means confined to crops. Live stock has suffered severely, and fences, bridges and even buildings have suffered very severely. Few bridges have been left, and the difficulty of getting about will be very seriously felt. There is one class of relief which can and must be extended to these unfortunate settlers—the replacing of bridges and repairing of roads.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

The matinee yesterday afternoon and the entertainment in the evening were brilliant successes. The theater was crowded on both occasions by gay and delighted throngs. With respect to the quality of the entertainment we can but repeat the encomiums of yesterday that the play is put on the stage in a most realistic and fascinating manner. Nothing is omitted to present the scenes in a natural form. The hoarse bay of the bloodhounds and their attack on Eliza, the sea of ice, the horrid swish of the lash as it descends on the back of Uncle Tom, the death of Eva and the shooting of Legree are all real life presentations. The company will perform again this evening, and will take their departure for San Francisco to-morrow.

After some further evidence the case was remanded for one day.

PORTLAND, June 27.—Robert Brunswick, lately from Canada, dropped dead at Albany this morning.

At nine o'clock this morning the southbound freight train on the O. & C. R. R. fell through the Pudding river bridge near Aurora. The engine got over safely, but its tender, six flat cars loaded with rails for the extension, and three empty box cars, fell into the river forty feet below. A brakeman was severely injured. Repairs so that trains can cross will be made by Sunday. The bridge was a Howe truss.

(N. Y. Evening Post.)

A poor sewing girl who went to the late Dr. John F. Gray for advice was given a phial of medicine and told to go home and go to bed. "I can't do that, Doctor," the girl replied, "for I am dependent on what I earn every day for my living." "If that is so," said Dr. Gray, "I'll change the medicine a little. Give me back the phial." He then wrapped around it a $10 bill, and returning it to her, reiterated his order, "Go home and go to bed;" adding, "Take the medicine, cover and all."

DISASTROUS CARLESSNESS.

A Stage Coach Containing Twelve Young People Overturned and the Entire Party Either Killed or Injured.

(Special Dispatch to the Oregonian.)

SAN FRANCISCO, June 25.—Early Saturday morning a disastrous and heartrending accident occurred in Santa Cruz county, three miles from Felton, and about five miles from Santa Cruz. Three weeks ago a large party of young people left this city to spend the vacation at Camp Felton, which is near the town of Felton, among the redwoods of Santa Cruz county. A large number of persons were already there, and this addition made the population of the camp, about 250 all told. A ride by moonlight to Santa Cruz had been proposed, but this was objected to by many of the party, as the mountain road was known to be very steep and dangerous. On Friday night, however, a party of 12 started on the frolic which terminated so fatally. A hay wagon and four horses were secured at Felton, and in it were Misses Cecilia Clark, of Oakland, Eva Hurbey, Ida Cawdry, Alice Hatz and Sallie Jackson, of San Francisco, and Miss Virginia Davis, of Newark, Messrs. Geo. Woodburn Scott, Benjamin Burling, J. D. Barr, Wm. K. Makee, and W. F. Dixey, of San Francisco, Fred C. Parry, of Oakland, and the driver, Jesse Perkins. They left Felton about 7:30 o'clock in the evening, and drove safely to Santa Cruz, where they spent a happy hour on the beach. On the return trip an accident happened to the wagon about half a mile from Santa Cruz. A Concord coach from the latter place was substituted for the crippled hay wagon, and the party drove on through the grand old forests and bright moonlight, their pleasure being only marred by a nervousness, caused by careless driving of Chas. Royce, who handled the reins instead of the regular driver, Jesse Perkins. Royce claimed to be an expert driver, well acquainted with the road. His careless driving was objected to, and numerous requests for him to relinquish the lines to Perkins were not acceded to. The scene of the accident was between tunnels five and six on the S. P. Coast Narrow-Gauge Railroad, and not far from the scene of the awful railroad accident not long since, in which many lives were lost. About half past twelve o'clock the party reached this spot, some 200 feet above the railway track, when suddenly the stage went over the grade, rolling over and over in its swift descent, until it lodged a complete wreck near the track below. Three out of the twelve excursionists were probably dead by the time it reaching the bottom, and one died within an hour. Two others were seriously wounded, and the rest escaped with more or less painful bruises, contusions and scratches. Those killed are Miss Cecilia Clark, aged 17 years, badly cut on the face and otherwise bruised about the body; Miss Eva Husted, aged 16 years, cut over the left eye and forehead and an arm broken. The next whose life was taken was Miss Ida Cowdry, daughter of city and county attorney Cowdry. She was badly bruised, cut about the face and had severe injuries on other parts of the body. The young lady's body, after striking the bluff above the railroad track, must have struck with terrible force or been carried thither by the coach, as it was found on the other side of the track. At that point the bluff is about 20 feet in height, and 200 feet on an incline from the scene of the accident. The fourth victim was Geo. Woodburn Scott, son of ex Supervisor A. W. Scott, of this city, aged 21. His death was terrible, as his skull was crushed and one leg broken in three places, and his spinal column broken. Benjamin Burling, who went up the previous afternoon on a fishing excursion received a wound that may cause his death. D. J. Bair had a leg broken and other bruises. From accounts of those on the stage the injuries to the rest are not serious.

An inquest was held by the coroner and a careful investigation made as to the cause of the accident. The verdict is that the disaster was caused by gross carelessness on the part of Jesse Perkins and Chas. Royce. Two of the horses were instantly killed and the other two badly crippled. Both Perkins and Royce jumped off when the stage went over, but did not escape without very serious bruises. The bodies of the victims were brought to the city last night and will be buried to-morrow. Perkins and Royce will probably be arrested on a charge of manslaughter.

LONDON, June 27.—Patrick Eagan, at Paris, telegraphs Patrick Ford that landlords through company with large capital propose to banish the Irish tenantry and getting English and Scotch farmers to take their places. This dispatch says it means war to the death.

"Pa, am I a little sinner?" "Yes, my son, we are all sinners." "And, papa, the Bible says the devil is the father of sinners, doesn't it?" "Yes, dear, I believe it does." "Then, papa, are you the devil?" His offspring's logic was too much for him and he slipped out of the room without answering. —Yonkers Gazette.

PREPARING FOR WAR.

A Collision Incvitable.

LONDON, June 26.—The Times says it may be taken for granted that there is something more than empty sound behind the preparations at the dockyards. We can but hope that if the conference fails to find any solution of Egyptian questions France will agree with England upon some plan of action, or leave us free to act alone.

ALEXANDRIA, June 27.—An uneasy feeling continues to prevail along the Suez Canal. It is rumored a number of cases containing explosives, accompanied by men in uniform, arrived at Ismailia, and have been deposited in an unoccupied pubic building under the supervision of the Governor. The Khedive has been advised to go on board a vessel.

LONDON, June 26—It is reported here that Greek moneylenders were ordered out of Cairo last Sunday. The English Delegate was ordered withdrawn from the commission appointed to inquire into the recent riots. The captain of the U. S. S. Galena has served notice on all American residents that the Galena is ready to receive them, and that they now remain in Egypt at their own risk.

ALEXANDRIA, June 27.—Arabi Pasha states if the Porte abandons him he will publish correspondence proving that every step taken since the 1st of September last was instigated by the Porte.

CONSTANTINOPLE, June 27.—The first sitting of the conference lasted several hours. The only differences manifested were with reference to the contingency of military occupancy and to the financial control. During the discussion of the rights of the Sultan over Egypt the tendency was manifested to confirm those rights on the basis of producing the idea of Egypt again becoming a Turkish province.

AGED BRIDEGROOMS.

Two Venerable Ministers About to Marry Again, One for the Fourth Time.

The community of aged men, some sixty odd, inmates of the Old Men's Home on Powelton avenue, in the West End, is agog over the approaching nuptials of the Rev. Dr. Spear, one of their number, while his large circle of friends is likewise much exercised thereat. Dr. Spear is in his seventieth year and although nearly blind from excessive use of eyes through his studious habits, he is tolerably well preserved physically. He managed with admirable tact to keep his courtship secret, and it was only through the request that he made of the Rev. Dr. Bolton to perform the marriage ceremony, and who announced the fact to the late Protestant Episcopal Convention, that the ancient lover's engagement with Cupid became public property. The intended bride is a Miss Thomas, of West Chester, who comes of an excellent family and is the possessor of some wealth. She is on the wintry side of life, although considerably younger than the proposed groom. Dr. Spear was for many years rector of St. Luke's Church in this city, and has sustained an unsullied reputation through life. He entered the Old Men's Home four years ago, and has since been a prime favorite. He has sent in his resignation, to take effect on June 1st, which has been accepted by the managers. The marriage is expected to take place early next month. It is said that he has grown tired of life in a public institution, and yearns again for the quiet domestic fireside. He is a widower.

While the marriage of the Rev. Dr. Spear will attract attention on account of his age, that of the Rev. Dr. John B. Clemson, of Claymont, Delaware County, ought to attract much more, since the latter is said to be considerably older. Dr. Clemson is ninety years of age, and has already had three wives. His marriage is announced to take place at Claymont on June 15th, and it will be celebrated in English style. The intended bride is Miss Hannah Gibbons, of West Chester. Dr. Clemson is well known in Philadelphia, having family connections in the Twenty-seventh Ward.

To Light the City of Victoria with Electric Light.

WHEREAS IT IS EXPEDIENT that the City of Victoria should be lighted with the Electric Light;

And whereas the estimated cost of purchasing and erecting machinery and plant necessary for lighting the City with such light is $15,000;

And whereas it is expedient that the said sum of $15,000 shall be raised upon debentures payable in fifteen years and bearing interest at the rate of Six per cent. per annum;

And whereas it will require the sum of $1700 to be raised annually by special rate for the payment of the said debt and interest, as is hereinafter mentioned;

And whereas the amount of the whole rateable property of the said Corporation of the City of Victoria, according to the last revised assessment roll, being for the year 1881, was $2,690,000, irrespective of any future increase of the rateable property of the Municipality and of any income in the nature of tolls, interest, or dividends from the work, and also irrespective of any incomes from the temporary investments of the sinking fund or any part thereof;

And whereas for paying the interest and creating an equal yearly sinking fund for paying the said principal sum of $15,000 and interest, as hereinafter mentioned, it will require an equal annual special rate of one-tenth of one per cent. on the dollar,

4. That the said debentures shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum from the date thereof, which interest shall be payable half-yearly at the office of the Treasurer of the Municipality.

5. That for the purpose of forming a sinking fund for the payment of the said debentures and interest at the rate aforesaid to become due thereon, an equal special rate of one-tenth of one cent on the dollar shall, in addition to all other rates, be raised, levied and collected in each year upon all rateable property in the said Municipality during the continuance of the said debentures or any of them.

6. It shall be lawful for the said Municipal Council from time to time after the expiration of 2 years from the date hereof to redeem all or any of the said debentures upon giving 3 months notice to the holders thereof which notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and one daily paper and after the expiration of the said three months all interest on the said debentures shall cease and such debentures shall be so expressed as to entitle the said Council to redeem and purchase the same on paying the amount thereof and interest due thereon to the date of such purchase to the holder or holders thereof and all debentures so repurchased shall forthwith be cancelled and destroyed and no reissue of debentures shall be made in consequence of such repurchase.

7. That this bylaw shall take effect and come into operation upon the 16th day of August, A.D. 1882.
